2020 AISES Leadership Summit

Find the Leader in YOU! Get ready for two full days of learning and connection to academic, tribal, and nonprofit leaders, as well as industry experts, at the 2020 Leadership Summit. Hosted by the American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES), this popular event is designed for students from high school through postdoctoral — as well as emerging and mature STEM professionals — who want to develop their ability to lead with confidence.

Through sessions and workshops, the AISES Leadership Summit equips participants with strategies for making the most of educational, networking, and career development opportunities. This is a unique opportunity to enjoy informal conversations with dynamic leaders — and have fun socializing with interesting people — while you create relationships that will provide opportunities for learning and growth through mentorship, coaching, and continuous development.

The 2020 AISES Leadership Summit is ready to create opportunities for impactful engagement that will inspire a more dynamic, powerful YOU!

Registration is now open at summit.aises.org. Contact Shayna Gutierrez at sgutierrez@aises.org or call 720-758-9669.
