Microsoft Learn Student Ambassador

Make a difference and help build vibrant communities

We’re looking for student leaders with passion

Bring your passion to help others learn new skills, solve real-world problems, and build communities across the globe.

It’s all up to you

Help fellow students build coding skills with Microsoft Learn, organize virtual hackathons, earn certifications, and build digital communities.

Make a difference with students from around the world

• Connect with other students who share your passion!
• Grow your skills and build your reputation as a tech insider!
• Become a leader in your local tech community and empower your peers!
