ARTICLE I - NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1 - Name

The name of this corporation is American Indian Science and Engineering Society, hereafter referred to as AISES.

Section 2 - Purpose

AISES is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes as described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) including but not limited to:

- A. Providing an organization for American Indian engineers, scientists, and technologists which will promote unity and cooperation and will provide a basis from which efforts may be made toward the advancement of the American Indian people, including substantially increasing the number of engineers, scientists, and technologists of American Indian descent.
- B. Providing better communication among American Indian science, engineering, and technology students, and between the students and the American Indian people and the public.
- C. Providing a basis for the development of professionalism among the American Indian science, engineering, and technology students and members of AISES.
- D. Providing assistance to American Indian science, engineering, and technology students including but not limited to:
 - 1. Financial assistance during the academic year and summer.
 - 2. Educational opportunities such as curriculum development, research, publication, career counseling, and distribution of educational materials, and educational film production.
 - 3. Mentorship.
- E. Providing a forum for the exploration of scientific, engineering, and technology problems relating to American Indian people and their lands.
- F. Promoting the interest of American Indians to pursue careers as engineers, scientists, and technologists.
- G. Participating in any grant, program, benefits, or services available under state or local law from any other person or organization or agency.

H. The establishment of cooperative efforts with other scientific, engineering, and technology organizations which are concerned with the under representation of minorities in the scientific, engineering, and technology fields.

ARTICLE II - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 - Definitions

- A. "American Indian" shall mean a person who is a member of any of the indigenous peoples of North America and the Pacific Islands.
- B. A member in good standing is defined to be "1) dues current if applicable, 2) contact information current, 3) not currently subject of any disciplinary action by AISES or AISES Chapter.
- C. Engineering and Science is defined to include all STEM Fields including:
- Engineering degrees/disciplines
 - Scientific degrees/disciplines
 - Math degrees/disciplines

 - Health Care degrees/disciplines
 - Coding and computer science degrees/disciplines
- D. Quorum shall be defined as:
1. A quorum of the Board of Directors in regular or special meetings shall be one more than half of the total members of the Board.

 2. A quorum for action on business presented on the annual meeting of the AISES membership agenda shall be twenty (20) General and Associate Members or 20 percent of the entire current General and Associate Membership, whichever is smaller, whether the vote is held in-person or conducted electronically.

Section 2 - Individual Memberships

There shall be two categories of individual memberships:

- A. General Membership shall be open, upon application to AISES, to any American Indian (as determined above) having a bachelor's or advanced degree in science, engineering, or technology; having an associate degree in science, engineering, or technology with scientific, engineering, technological, or engineering technology work experience.
- B. Associate Membership shall be open to any American Indian (as determined above) currently enrolled in any accredited college or university offering an engineering or engineering technology curriculum; or any scientists, engineers, or other interested persons who are not qualified as General Members, upon application to AISES. Associate Membership shall be open to any interested individual who does not qualify for General Membership.
- C. Membership, either General or Associate, shall not be transferable or assignable.
- D. Each General Member and Associate Member shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the General and Associate Membership.

- E. Any member, either General or Associate, may resign by filing a written resignation with the Membership Committee.

Disciplinary Action: A member may be suspended or expelled from AISES for cause by:

1. A 2/3 vote of a quorum of the General and Associate Membership acting on a petition motion signed by at least five (5) members in good standing.
2. A majority vote of the Board of Directors. Before any action for suspension or expulsion is taken in this matter, such member shall be given a written statement of the charges at least 30 days prior to the General meeting or Board meeting before which the member is to appear and shall be given an opportunity to answer all charges at the designated meeting. The decision of the Board of Directors is subject to appeal at a meeting of the General and Associate Membership.
3. Authority of the President to suspend a member's involvement with all AISES activities should an issue of contravention of AISES Code of Conduct or Safe Camp Agreement occur. The suspension shall not be greater than 30 days pending board review and action in accordance with 1 or 2 above.
4. The Board of Directors has the authority to impose a monetary fine on a General or Associate member or an AISES College, Professional, or Tribal Chapter for any costs or damages caused by the actions of one of its members. The decision of the Board of Directors is subject to appeal at a membership meeting. The Board has the authority to pursue legal action to resolve part or all of the levied fine if it is deemed necessary by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
5. Cause for suspension, expulsion, and imposition of fines includes (but is not limited to) violations of the AISES Code of Conduct or any other internal laws or rules governing AISES.

ARTICLE III - BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 – Number and Membership Make-up of Board of Directors

- A. The number of voting Board of Directors shall be no less than seven (7) and no more than twelve (12). Two Board of Directors may be from the Associate membership of AISES, the remainder of the seats will be filled with General Members of AISES.

Section 2 – Election of the Board of Directors

- A. The members of the Board of Directors shall be elected by the General and Associate Membership of AISES via electronic ballot, or via confidential paper ballot delivered to AISES Headquarters.
- B. Prior to each election, the Board of Directors will set the number of elective Board seats necessary to effectively fulfill Board duties for the next year. There must be one additional candidate nominated over the total number of vacancies. In the case there is not at least one more candidate than vacancies, AISES will not be able to fill all Board seat vacancies and will fill one less seat with an eligible candidate (see voting section below).

Section 3 – Nomination and Voting Process

- A. The Governance Committee shall call for nominations no earlier than May 1. The call for nominations will be sent out to all AISES members via e-mail and posted on the AISES website. Any Associate or General member in good standing may nominate fellow members in good standing to the Board of Directors. Self-nomination to the Board of Directors is acceptable. Each nomination to the Board of Directors shall be accompanied by two endorsements by members in good standing. The information in AISES Membership Database at the time of nomination will be used to define membership status.
- B. Nominations to fill AISES Board of Directors open seat(s) will be submitted through an online form available on the AISES website. Nomination packets submitted via other methods, such as mail, or email will not be accepted. No later than August 1, the Governance Committee Chair will verify the completed nomination packets and communicate with the AISES staff to prepare ballots for a vote of the AISES Membership.
- C. For AISES members who do not have an e-mail address, AISES staff will send out a notification of the election via mail. If a member is unable to vote electronically, they can request a ballot by contacting AISES for a ballot which can be returned by U.S. Mail or Canadian Post (contact information will be in the notification). All ballots must be postmarked, or electronically submitted by September 1, or as otherwise directed by the Governance Committee. The nomination packets and ballots will be available to members on the AISES website.
- D. The Board nominees receiving the most votes will be elected to the open Board of Directors positions. Once the election is certified by the Governance Committee Chair, the elected nominees will be contacted by the President on or before October 1 to share the outcome of the election. All nominated and/or write-in candidates shall have agreed, in advance, to serve if elected. The election winners will remain confidential to the AISES Board and Staff until notification and acceptance occurs.

Section 4 – Election Voting and Notification Process

- A. To be eligible to vote in AISES elections, individuals must be a member in good standing as confirmed by AISES staff utilizing the AISES Membership Database. Each voting member is allowed to cast one vote for each open elected Board position. A member may only cast one vote for each nominated Board member, i.e., a member may not cast multiple votes for a nominated Board member.
- B. At the completion of the voting period, the AISES VP, IT will retrieve the vote tabulations from the confidential AISES website platform. The VP, IT shares the vote tabulation with the President, and they send a message to the Governance Committee within ten working days. The communication will identify the candidates who received the largest number of votes for the open Board seats. Should a tie occur, the General and Associate Membership of AISES shall resolve the tie by confidential ballot vote at the next General meeting of the AISES Membership. Should an elected nominee not be able to accept the nomination, the recipient who received the next highest number of votes will be offered the position.

Section 5 – Board of Director Terms

- A. Board members' terms are three years. Members shall not be eligible for election to the Board for more than two consecutive terms (i.e., 6 years). AISES will endeavor to stagger Board Terms to avoid loss of institutional knowledge and allow smooth board functioning. The elected candidates shall be installed, and their terms of office shall commence at the next winter Board of Directors meeting.

Section 6 – National Student Representatives and the AISES Board of Directors

- A. Four students shall be selected by the AISES Student Chapters to be seated as Advisory, nonvoting members on the AISES Board of Directors and will be known as the National Student Representatives.
- B. Eligible candidates must be an AISES Student Member in good standing and in school (either undergraduate or Graduate) through the spring semester of their final two-year term.
- C. The Managing Director, Engagement and Advocacy is authorized to determine other qualifications and the election process for the National Student Representatives.
- D. The National Student Representatives shall have staggered two-year terms.
- E. If a vacancy occurs, the Managing Director, Engagement and Advocacy is authorized to select a replacement to fill the vacancy until the next meeting of the AISES Student Members.

Section 7 - Board of Director Officers

- A. Four (4) Directors from the General Membership shall be officers elected by the Board of Directors to serve as the Chair, Vice Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- B. All Officers shall serve two-year terms unless removed from that office for cause, or if removed from the membership of AISES for reasons stated in these By-Laws or if the Officer resigns the position due to inability to satisfactorily perform the duties of said position or if the Officer resigns the position to pursue another Officer position.
- C. Board Members shall not be eligible for election to more than one office during the two-year term as an officer.
- D. An officer of AISES Board of Directors shall not serve as an officer on any other corporation or enterprise that is operated wholly or partially by AISES. They may serve as a Board member on one other AISES corporation or enterprise that is operated wholly or partially by AISES. The Chair of AISES Board of Directors, may serve as a member of the Board of any AISES corporation or enterprise as an ex-officio member only and shall not serve as an officer on that Board.

Section 8 - Duties and Powers

- A. The affairs of AISES shall be managed by its Board of Directors. Directors need not be residents of the State of Oklahoma, and they must come from AISES Membership.

- B. The Board of Directors shall meet at the time of the General and Associate Membership.
- C. All meetings of the Board of Directors shall be open to the General and Associate Membership, except for special sessions which contain agenda items that, in the best interest of AISES, should be acted on by the Board and Executive officers only.
- D. Any Director may be removed and relieved of duties for cause after an appropriate hearing, by a vote of 2/3 of the Board membership present, if a quorum exists. Any Director who is the subject of a removal proceeding will be excused of duties pending the outcome of the vote.
- E. All Directors shall serve until the commencement of the term of their successor.
- F. Chair shall give notice of any special meeting of the Board of Directors at least twenty (20) days previous thereto by written notice delivered personally or sent by mail or any electronic means to each Director's address as shown by AISES records. If notice is given by email, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the email is delivered to the sender's server. If notice is given by fax, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when the fax acknowledges a send receipt. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope so addressed with postage thereon prepaid. Or a meeting of the Board of Directors may be called as needed upon presentation to the Chair by the majority of Board members. Any Director may waive notice of such meeting with the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted, nor the purpose of any regular or special meetings of the Board, need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless specially required by law or by these Bylaws.
- G. The Chair may conduct meetings of the Board by conference call on issues requiring immediate actions by the Board or any electronic means concerning votes in writing, providing that waiver of notice be given orally, to be immediately followed by written waiver to the Secretary. Written confirmation of each vote shall be forwarded to the Secretary and notice of such decision(s) shall be sent to the General Membership via electronic means.
- H. The Chair may conduct meetings by mail or using any electronic means which pertain to issues requiring action necessary to AISES, provided that such a decision reached shall be by unanimous vote of the Board. Notice of such decision shall be sent to the General Membership via electronic means.
- I. The vote of a majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or these Bylaws.
- J. Vacancies
 1. When a vacancy occurs on the Board of Directors, the Board may fill the vacancy by a temporary appointment by a vote of a majority of the remaining Directors, even though less than a quorum may exist. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Chair, that office shall be assumed by the Vice- Chair. The Board shall then elect a succeeding Vice-Chair.
 2. A special election shall be called at the next General meeting to fill the unexpired term of the vacant office of AISES.
- K. Directors shall not receive any stated salaries for their services or other compensation in any form. However, nothing herein contained shall be construed to preclude any Director from serving AISES in any other capacity and receiving compensation, therefore.

L. Duties of the Board and Staff - The Board of Directors shall carry out the functions of AISES between meetings of that body and perform such acts as may be assigned to it from time to time and shall carry out faithfully the purposes and policies of AISES. The acts of the Board of Directors shall be effective for all purposes as the act or authorization of AISES provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall have no authority to repeal, rescind, veto, or repudiate any action taken at any General meeting of AISES, or at any special meeting held thereafter.

1. The Chair shall:

- preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and of the General Membership,
- assume other duties as prescribed in these Bylaws, and
- undertake other duties as added or defined at the discretion of the Board of Directors or the General Membership.

2. The Vice-Chair shall:

- preside at all meetings in the absence of the Chair and,
- undertake other duties as added or defined at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

3. The Secretary is responsible to ensure the following:

- complete and accurate records of all meetings of the Board of Directors are maintained.

Section 2 – Incorporation, Office(s), Agent(s)

AISES may have its principal office either within or without the state of Oklahoma, as the Board of Directors may determine or as the affairs of AISES may require from time to time. AISES shall have and continuously maintain in the state of Oklahoma a registered office and a registered agent. The registered office may be, but need not be, identical with the principal office, if the principal office is in the state of Oklahoma, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 3 - Bonding, Contracts, Checks, and Accepting Funds

- A. Bonding: Officers and Employees. The Board of Directors shall require any officer or employee having custody of or handling funds of AISES to give bond with good sufficient surety in an amount and character to be determined by AISES in compliance with regulations and authorize the payment of the premium(s) from the funds of AISES.
- B. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent, or agents of AISES, in addition to the officers so authorized by these Bylaws, to enter any contract, or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of AISES and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.
- C. All checks, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, notes, or other evidence of indebtedness issued in the name of AISES shall be signed by such officers, agent, or agents of AISES and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Board of Directors.
- D. The Board of Directors may accept on behalf of AISES any contribution, gift, bequest, or devise for the general purpose or for any special purpose of AISES.

Section 4 – Meetings

- A. There shall be no less than one General meeting each year of the General and Associate Membership of AISES. The Board of Directors shall have the power to specify the day, time, and place these meetings are to be held, provided that proper notice of such meetings be given.
- B. The Chair of the Board must call a special meeting upon presentation of a petition containing the signatures of a simple majority of the General and Associate Membership.

- C. Written notice stating the place, day, and hour of any meeting of members shall be delivered either personally, by mail, or by email to each member, General or Associate, not less than two weeks or more than two months before the date of such meeting, by or at the direction of the Chair of the Board, the officers or persons calling the meeting. In the case of a special meeting or when required by law or by these Bylaws, the purpose, or purposes for which the meeting is called shall be stated in the notice. If mailed, the notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his or her address as it appears on the record of AISES.
- D. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the General and Associate Members, or any action which is or was planned to be taken at a meeting of the General and Associate Members, may be taken without a meeting if: (1) A written consent is signed by all members entitled to vote, and (2) The consent shall state the action to be taken, and (3) The consent is signed within one month after the written proposed action has been mailed or emailed to the members.
- E. All meetings are to be conducted by Robert's Rules of Order, revised.
- F. The Chair of the Board shall appoint a parliamentarian who will rule on the points of procedure at General meetings and board meetings and assure adherence to these Bylaws during such meetings.

Section 5 - Voting

- A. A majority of the vote entitled to be cast by the General and Associate Membership present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be necessary for the passage of any business requiring a vote. This subsection does not apply to Bylaw's amendments, board elections, or any vote that requires a greater proportion specified by law or these Bylaws.
- B. Voting by proxy shall not be allowed.

Section 6 - Waivers of Notice

Whenever any notice is required to be given under the provisions of the Non-profit Corporation Act of Oklahoma or under the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of AISES, a waiver in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1 – Amending Articles of Incorporation

The Articles of Incorporation of AISES are subject to amendment by 2/3 vote of the General and Associate Membership. when a quorum for AISES membership meeting with agenda action items is met. Voting will be done via secret letter ballot or by electronic ballot. The Board of Directors will appoint three inspectors to oversee the counting and reporting of votes.

Section 2 – Amending or Approving Bylaws

The Bylaws of AISES may be approved or amended by simple majority vote when a quorum for AISES membership meeting agenda action items is met. Voting will be done via secret letter ballot or by electronic ballot. The Board of Directors will appoint three inspectors to oversee the counting and reporting of votes.

Section 3 – Bylaw Change Process

- A. The AISES Board of Directors directs the Governance Committee to address an issue, or the Governance Committee identifies an issue within the Bylaws which needs to be addressed.

- B. The Governance Committee will address the issue and form a recommendation for the Board of Directors consideration. This may or may not be in the form of a resolution. Depending on the significance of the change, a legal review may be in order.
1. If in the form of a recommendation, not a resolution, the Board of Directors can:
 - Accept, send back to the Governance Committee to be developed into a resolution for consideration,
 - Reject, no further action needed,
 - Or pass a motion to send back to the Governance Committee for modifications and resubmission.
 - If in the form of a resolution, the Board of Directors can Approve to be sent to the membership for review and for a vote to approve or reject the resolution,
 - Reject, no further action needed.
- C. Approximately two weeks prior to the membership meeting, the resolution(s) will be made available to the membership for review. The resolution will then be presented to the membership at its annual meeting. Resolutions can be presented in one of two different manners:
1. Following normal order of business, the resolution is presented, after discussion, the membership can:
 - Approve,
 - Reject, no further action needed.
 2. If the quantity or complexity warrants, the resolution(s) can be reviewed, and the membership is given an additional time-period to comment on the resolution(s). The Governance Committee will discuss the feedback and determine if modification (s) of the resolution (s) are warranted. If so, the modified resolution (s) goes to the Board of Directors for approval. The membership is then provided an opportunity to review the modified resolution(s) and vote to approve or reject.
- D. The resolution naming nomenclature is “Resolution #MMDDYY – n - AISES”, where YYMMDD is the year month day of the expected membership approval, -n is the alpha designation if there is more than one resolution being voted upon by the membership.
- E. The AISES Governance Committee is authorized to correct clerical or typographical errors in the Bylaws and approved resolutions if the modification (s) does not change the intent of the Bylaw or the resolutions.
